CHICAGO, Sept. 2.-Both Frank Gotch and George Hackenschmidt, opponents in Monday's battle for the world's heavyweight wrestling championship, put in their last training today. Both men will spend Sunday in quiet, ready, they say, for the supreme test of Monday, when they pit their almost superhuman strength and endurance against each other in what is clearly the greatest wrestling match of the decade.

Although Hack's system of training has been positively unique in its laxity since he has been in America, those who have seen the giants declare they both are in perfect physical condition, and that the loser cannot set up the claim that he was not in good shape.

Gotch Sure He'll Win. Gotch, trained to the minute, deblared today he was never stronger

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—A slight oversight of Pat Powers, promoter of the Brown-Wells fight last Wednesday night, in neglecting to sign his name to his sworn statement sent to the State boxing commission, resulted in Powers being called before the commission today to answer numerous complaints regarding overcharging and crowding at the Garden.

Ty Cobb still manages to hold his place at the head of the sluggers' procession, but Larry Lajoie is close behind Joe Jackson in the race for runner-up. Dixie Walker, the Nationals clouting twirler, took a tumble last week, and is now in sixth place. The Nationals have passed Boston

McAleer Dissatisfied With Draft Results

CINCINNATI, Sept. 2.-Jimmy Mc-Aleer, manager of the Washington Americans, is not wholly satisfied with the result of the draft. He has been awarded five players out of the twelve he sought. The best men went to other clubs or were passed over. Washington gets Jack Flynn, the St. Paul firstsacker, lately obtained from Pittsburg; 'Red' Alnsworth, Youngstown's winning pitcher; Howard Shank, Youngstown's crack fielder, who struck Mc-Aleer's eye while scouting this summer; Akers, Dubuque's crack twirler, and Musser, a promising hurler from Ganton, Ohio.

Third Baseman Vitt, of the San Francisco club, goes to Detroit, Morris Rath, Baltimore's second baseman, once with the Athletics, goes to the Cubs, and Johnny Dubuc, the former Redieg. becomes a Tiger. Gregory, Oakland's winning pitcher; Irving, Columbus' crack gardener, and Carlisle, Vernon's 'triple-play outfielder,' escaped the draft. These men were particularly desired by the manager of the Washing-ton club.

One hundred and ten minor leaguers were drafted by major league clubs, sixty-three going to the National League and forty-seven to Ban Johnson's cir-cuit. Brooklyn gets sixteen players, Cleveland eleven, and Detroit nine-Most of Detroit's allotment were sought by other clubs.

Ay. NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Joe Jeannette, whose battle with Sam Langford on Tuesday next in the Garden is causing much attention, is working hard to get 1951 in perfect condition. Dr. Parker's Battle Ax team, champions of Richmond, contenders in the second game of the double-header at the big park Monday, will arrive in Washington tomorrow afternoon at 2:30.

During the summer most persons are annoyed with pimple boils, rashes or eruptions, while others suffer more severely with Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, or some kindred skin disease.
